Kristy Little

Kristy Little's journey in art stems from a straightforward philosophy. She has dabbled in artistry throughout her life, from a stick figure self-portrait on a plate when she was a child to designing a logo for her daughter's horse training business.

But her passion lies in pastels and creating vivid animal portraits. Accompanied by her dog, Kristy uses her home studio to put pencil to paper, drawing both the domestic and wild.

While her family has loved her doodles over the years, Kristy only recently started displaying her work.

Whether it is an original or commissioned piece, she is excited to tackle new projects.

Kristy was raised in Bismarck and currently resides with her family in Baldwin, North Dakota.
