Taylor DeVries

Taylor developed a serious love for nature and the outdoors while growing up in northern Minnesota. Her paintings capture this love of everything wild with color and vibrance.

Taylor enjoys spending time at her home studio in Bismarck, North Dakota.

She splits her free time between painting and spending many hours outdoors with her husband, Sam, and their dog Hunter. She enjoys many art mediums but tends to stick mainly with oil and gouache.

Her work is part of the permanent collection of Essentia Health Hospital, St. Mary's Medical Center in Duluth, Minnesota. She is a member of the Bismarck Art & Galleries Association and Bismarck Downtown Artists Co-op. She has exhibited her work at both local galleries. She was also part of the 2019 Audited Exhibition "Bison in Art" at the National Buffalo Museum in Jamestown, North Dakota.
